May 24, is C-cubed Day! This is a day for people of different heritages and communities to come together and celebrate. Often our busy lives separate us. On May 11th, we will break down barriers and form bridges of communication through art, spoken word, dance, food, and music.

On May 24th, our differences will not separate us, but rather our differences will be the bridge that unites us! Plan now to attend!!
